

Agenda

“Baltic meeting on results of hazardous substances source tracking, proposals for monitoring programmes and measures for reduction”

6 – 7 March 2012

Location: Algirdas City Hotel, Vilnius, Lithuania

6 March 2012

12:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:00	Registration of the participants
14:00	Opening and introduction Ms. Kitty Kislenko, BEF-Estonia
14:15	Final results of hazardous substances source tracking in three Baltic States <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Methods used for source tracking - Main findings – which hazardous substances were detected and the relevant sources (industrial and municipal) Ms. Heli Nõmmsalu, BEF EE Discussion on source tracking issues
15:00	National proposals for improvement of state monitoring programmes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the analysis of state-of-the-art of current environmental monitoring system - proposal for the improvements with regard to detection and monitoring of hazardous substances - analytical requirements for the chemical analysis and monitoring of water status and related challenges EE – Ms. Ülle Leisk, Estonian Environmental Research Centre LV – Mr. Valters Toropovs, BEF Latvia LT – Ms. Jolanta Dvarionienė, KTU APINI All presentations a’ 20 min
15:40	Coffee break
16:10	National proposals for improvement of state monitoring programmes (presentations continuing)

16:30	Feedback/discussion on proposals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - which are the most problematic issues (new emerging substances, challenges related to technical specifications of 2009/90/EC ...) Representatives of Ministries of Environment or any other authority/institution responsible for the developing environmental monitoring programmes or carrying out the analysis
18:00	Dinner

7 March 2012

09:00	Review of yesterday and today Ms. Kitty Kislenko, BEF EE
09:10	National recommendations for the reduction of hazardous substances <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - relevance of hazardous substances (based on monitoring/screening data, available information on use, emissions, regulatory status as well as existing measures for management) - potential general and substance specific measures for the reduction EE – Ms. Heli Nõmmsalu, BEF EE LV – Mr. Valters Toropovs, BEF LV LT – Ms. Jolita Kruopienė, KTU APINI All presentations a’ 20 min + discussion
10:30	Coffee break
10:50	Recent and/or further actions foreseen regarding measures for the reduction of hazardous substances <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - analysis of the current situation, problematic issues etc. - actions to be taken, main challenges (implementation of the specific emission control measures, changes in relevant legislation etc.) EE – Mr. Enn Liive, Ministry of Environment LV - Ms. Ligita Vircava , Latvian Environmental, Geology and Meteorology Centre LT – Ms. Evelina Cuzanauskienė, Ministry of Environment
12:20	Summarizing and closure Ms. Kitty Kislenko, BEF EE
12:30	Lunch and departure

